There will be four shows at the last today and an exceptionally fine sill of vaudeville and photoplays will be seen for the last time today. The e seen for the last time today. The ret half of next week will bring to the lavis one of the finest and most exhavis one of the finest and most exensive photoplay programs ever preented in this city. The big attraction is Polly of the Circus, an elaborate treen presentation of Margaret flayo's great drama of circus life in light big acts.

Polly of the Circus tells the story
f a little circus orphan (Mae Marsh), tho has been raised by Toby, the lown (Charles Eldridge). Polly is little in an accident and has to remain behind while the show goes on. She is taken to the home of the minister, where her presence in the house is turned into scandal by the narrow-inded village gossips.

This leads to her going back to the circus, but the following spring the circus comes back to the little town, and through the intervention of a fight and a fire in the "Big Top," Polly and the minister find each other—and This is a picture of laughter and

This is a picture of laughter and tears; a picture of a score of circus thrills and, in fact, you see a complete circus performance on the screen. The most amazing of all the scenes is the burning of the main tent during the evening performance and the wild stampede of the audience. Everett Shinn, the famous artist, designed the settings, and Margaret Mayo, the author, personally aided Charles Horan, the director of the picture, in his work.

Cold Settled In His Back

"Feley Kidney Pills always give me prompt relief." Ed Velton, Regers, Neb., Ed Velton, of Rogers, Neb., writes: "I have used Foley Kidney Pills for backache, the result of catching cold, which settled in my back. Foley Kidney Pills always give me prompt relief, and I can cheerfully recommend them."

The reason Foley Kidney Pills act so satisfactorily is because they neutralize and dissolve the poisonous waste matter that remains in the blood because the kidneys do not do their work properly in filtering and casting out from the system uriq acid and other poisons.

Relief usually follows in a few days and such symptoms as pain in the sides or back, stiff joints, sore muscles, rheumatism, too frequent action of the bladder at night, and other painful and annoying allments disappear. Foley Kidney Pills contain no harmful ingredients. They are safe as well as quick acting.

Dairy Cows and Farm

Machinery To Be Held At

This sale will disperse one of the highest quality herds in this section of the state. It consists of 9 Holsteins and 2 Jerseys (both nice family cows). These cows are the results of many years of careful selection of profitable producers. They are all gentle, easy milkers, in a healthy, thrifty condition; all bred to a registered pure bred sire, whose dam has a 32-pound butter record. Six cows are now milking; three are due within a month and two within six weeks.

Do not miss this opportunity to replace a boarder with one of these proven producers.

THE BELOVED WARRIOR. LOUIS M, GRICE,

To lofty ideals holding fast,
He ventures on his dangerous quest,
Braving the shrapnel's awful blast,
That deadly wrongs may be redressed;
He goes—a champion of the free,
And now I ask, with bated breath,
Will my deer one come back to me. Will my dear one come back to me From that charred land of war and death? Yet though my grieving heart may

Will be come back? again I ask:
Ah me! how bitter—thus to part;
I falter at each daily task,
With sorrow stabbing my lone heart!
While even through my fitful sleep,
Grim war intones unhapply themes;
For where the flame of battle sweep,
I see him struggling in my dreams,
Fighting to reach the hero's goal;
And apprehension grips my soul;
Tet greater far would be my woe,
Feared he the foe.

He could not rest in peaceful case
While mailed might assailed the world,
And sough with vandal hands to seize
The gems in Freedom's crown impearled:

at the Auditorium theatre yesterday for a run of two days. In this production, Miss Brockwell, the "Girl of a Thousand Expressions," fights against heart-breaking odds, and comes from the fray weary but victorious.

Her part is that of Lorrie Hollis, whose marriage to Hallam (Bert Grassby) is not particularly felicitous. In an effort to save her husband from financial ruin, she goes to the home of Patton (Charles Clary) a broker and former suitor, and asks him to let her husband win in the Stock Market. This she does at her husband's suggestion. She is mortified later to learn that he thinks she has rewarded Patton for agreeing to give aid.
